The regular meeting was adjourned at 8:36 a.m. for the executive session.

6. EXECUTIVE SESSION – SANFORD AIRPORT AUTHORITY VS. ANNETT, ET AL

7. RECONVENE

The regular meeting reconvened at 8:47 a.m.

Motion by Secretary/Treasurer Donihi, seconded by Board Member Williams, to ratify Mediation Settlement Agreement in regards to Parcel P-39 (Sanford Airport Authority vs. Betty Carolyn Annett, Donald George Annett, et al.). Motion passed.

8. PRESIDENT’S REPORT

President Dale reported on the following:

B. Incursion – The Airport had its Part 139 Certification Inspection on June 5-6, 2008. The Airport passed with no demerits on the entire airport. There were three incursions, all coming from Taxiway Sierra, turning north on Taxiway Romeo. The runway was properly marked. It was later determined that the Jeppeson chart was published incorrectly. The chart cannot be fixed until September 25, 2008. George Speake stated an addendum to the diagrams was done, a FDC Notam will state the diagram is incorrect, and the Tower has distributed a Letter to Airmen. President Dale clarified there was nothing unsafe about the markings and that the Airport has done everything it can to ensure safety.

C. Extension of Runway 9L-27R – In regards to the Benefit Cost Analysis, the approval from Washington has not been received yet. Grant for the Environmental Assessment has been received. Motion by Board Member Robertson, seconded by Secretary/Treasurer Donihi, to release the grant to be used for the Environmental Assessment. Motion passed.

[Discussed out of order after City of Sanford Liaison Report]

Four bid responses for this job were received. Bids range from $5,310,385.00 to $8,189,000.00 on the Schedule A base bid. For Alternate 1 (18/36 East), the bid ranged from $1,992,488.00 to $2,888,320.00. For Alternate 2 (Taxiway Bravo 1) the bids ranged from $360,038.00 to $528,150.00. For Alternate 3 (Seal the overrun) the bids ranged from $94,300.00 to $177,300.00. Total for Schedule A, all alternates, including Schedule B to remove the island, range from $8,160,022.50 to $12,073,630.00. Contract will not be assigned until the money is available. Motion by Secretary/Treasurer Donihi, seconded by Board Member Pieters authorizing President Dale to proceed with the Overlay of Runway 9L-27R; to be funded either through discretionary or entitlement funding.

[Discussed out of order after Airport Aerials]

Board Member Miller stated that due to the nature of the project, the contract must protect the Airport, to include liquidated damages amongst other things. President Dale stated liquidated damages clause is included in both the bid documents and the contract.

E. Best Western Hotel – Nothing to report at the moment.

F. Parking Lot C – Still on the permit phase. A JPA grant with State was received for the addition of canopies.

G. Energy Saving Project – Project is progressing well. ESG doing a great job.

H. Cargo Buildout – Nothing to report at the moment.

I. Attorneys’ Fees – Distribution and discussion of June’s attorneys’ fees.

J. City of Sanford
i. Consumptive Use Permit (CUP) for two wells – City of Sanford is still reviewing the Sanford Airport Authority’s request for waiver of annexation/zoning/permitting fees in the amount of $47,200.00.

ii. Airport’s Lease – City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh will review the lease. Ken Wright is drafting a letter to Kristi Aday.

K. ACI Settlement Agreement – The Airport finally received the settlement agreement signed by ACI and DuraStress. President Dale recommended the Board authorize Chairman Longstaff to sign it. Board Member Miller questioned if this agreement terminated the lawsuit. The agreement ends the lawsuit with prejudice. Motion by Board Member Miller, seconded by Board Member Williams, authorizing Chairman Longstaff to sign the Settlement Agreement by and between the Sanford Airport Authority, ACI Construction Services, Inc., Continental Casualty Company, Dura-Stress, Inc., and American Contractors Indemnity Company. Motion passed.

The Airport’s options in regards to the HTA lawsuit will be discussed after Counsel meets with HTA.

L. Capital Cargo Lease addendum – Motion by Board Member Eckstein, seconded by Board Member Robertson, approving Addendum A to Lease No. 2008-17, releasing Capital Cargo International Airlines, Inc. of 46,460 square feet of ramp space to be used by Allegiant Air. Motion passed.

M. Request from Sheriff Don Eslinger – Sheriff Eslinger requested to terminate Lease No. 99-21 for Building 310 effective December 31, 2008. President Dale and Diane Crews met with Sheriff Eslinger and Terry Fernandez to discuss the option of HIDTA (High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area) moving from the first floor to the third floor. This was not determined to be a viable option. Sheriff Eslinger requested to vacate all three floors by December 31, 2008. Motion by Secretary/Treasurer Donihi, seconded by Board Member Eckstein, authorizing request vacate Building 310 in its entirety. Motion passed.

N. Wildlife Management

i. Gator Permit – The Airport now has a gator permit, allowing trained personnel to remove gators up to 4 feet in length. Only with emergency orders will they be able to remove a gator larger than 4 feet.

ii. Gopher Tortoise Permit - Permit allows relocation of gopher tortoises to the RPZ of Runway 27L.

iii. Aquatic Life Removal – Doing fish removal with help of the University of Florida Department of Fisheries.
iv. Eagle nest removal – George Speake has applied (under both State and Federal) to remove the nest at Starport.

v. Birdstrike Conference – Conference taking place on August 18 –21, 2008. Congressman Mica confirmed his attendance at the opening ceremony. The Audubon Society will bring an eagle and several other birds for demonstration at the cookout at Lake Golden Park, on August 20, 2008 preceding the Airport tour. Approximately 500 people are expected to attend the conference. The early bird training session will take place on August 18, 2008. President Dale will be one of the featured speakers, along with John Metcalf (GOAA Supervisor of Wildlife) and Steven Payne (Shuttle Launch Director). Mears Transportation will provide five buses to transport the 250 people attending the tour of the Airport on August 20, 2008.

P. Allegiant Air Hangar Buildout – Still waiting on response to proposal.

Q. Reminder of luncheon – President Dale reminded the Board of John Carver’s retirement luncheon after the Board meeting. Mr. Carver is retiring from the ARFF Department.

R. Tenants – The Airport continues to have business opportunities to either lease land for the tenants to construct a facility or to build the facility ourselves and lease it to the tenant. Some of the buildings are in the range of $5-6 million. President Dale wanted to confirm he has the Board’s consent to discuss and negotiate with prospective tenants. He would not commit to any project without the Board’s approval. Consensus of the Board allowing President Dale to discuss funding with prospective tenants.

S. Airport Aerials – The Airport needs updated aerials. Motion by Board Member Eckstein, seconded by Board Member Miller, authorizing the Airport to obtain current aerials in the amount of $11,000.00.
